

The Reminder

“Godly Women”

As the proverb writer explains (Proverbs 31:10-31), a godly woman is to be respected and praised for their life is full of good works. They bring sunshine, love, compassion, and happiness to lives of others. To man they are a most special gift from God. Man was not complete until God created woman. And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him” (Gen. 2:18). “And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man” (Gen. 2:21-22), and this is where woman is to be, by the side of man. When God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.” He was not speaking of man alone as we see in the very next verse, “So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them” (Gen. 1:26-27).

Solomon also makes note of how the godly woman is trustworthy, does not get caught up in gossip, and is her husband’s confidant. It is so truly spoken that “behind every good man is a good woman.” It seems that man will only reach his full potential when he is united with a godly woman.

How is it that she can accomplish so much each day? This is an easy answer; she is motivated and driven to help others. Whether it is husband, child, family, friend, or stranger, the godly woman’s first instinct is to address the needs of others first, and tend to her own needs later. Her loving attitude is something that should be cherished and treasured by all who know her. As Solomon wrote, “her price is far above rubies,” today we use the term “priceless.” Let us thank God for the treasure of a godly woman. Let us praise and honor her as we are directed in the scriptures. For it is through the godly woman that we experience first hand the love of God. It is in her way of nurturing, loving, and caring that brings an abundance of happiness and joy to our lives.

Let us reciprocate some love back to her today. When you see a godly woman, will you take a moment to tell her how much you appreciate her and what she really means to you? -Lenny Chapman

News and Notes:

Continue praying for those of our number who have on-going health issues. Deb Haley, Janice Kimbrough, Jan Cooper, Curby Stech, Laura Claburn and Don Hurd.

So glad to be home, at least for a little while. Things are better in Anita's family. Now she can have a chance to rest up some. Others will also be home from their travels. So good to be with the Lord's family here.

We will have a guest speaker next Sunday, May 17th. We support Bill Beasley in the gospel in Lincolnton, N. C. He is coming thru here on his way to Arizona to visit family there. What a wonderful opportunity for you to meet him and learn of his work.

Seems we have a teacher work day next Saturday, May 16. There will be plenty to do. If you want to help, make plans to be here around 9:30 am.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Words are the means which God gave us to communicate our thoughts and intentions to one another. We may use different letters, symbols, languages, or even hand movements to form our words, but the end result is the same: our mind and heart are revealed. Jesus is the medium through which God chose to communicate His will to the world with finality and conclusively (Heb. 1:1-3), thus the Holy Spirit identifies Jesus as the Word--eternal, original, and the source of all life, yet willing to take on flesh to reveal the heart and mind of God perfectly. The Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth (Jn. 1:14). People saw His works, heard His words, and witnessed His perfect life. He gave them every opportunity to hear the truth, obey it, and be saved. Most turned away from Him. He is still full of grace and Truth. Are we listening?
